

Lizzy Borden Performs At Pulsations Nov. 23

With the scariest stage show in the world, Lizzy Borden and his electrifying metal band of the same name will shock onlookers during his live "Metal Mondays" concert at Pulsations Entertainment Complex Nov. 23 in Glen Mills, Delaware County.

Borden's theatrics include dozens of axes, gallons of stage blood and a bounty of baseball bats.

From his current album, Visual Lies, Borden will perform as his newest character "Oblivion" who has a picture tube brain and electric wiring running through his veins.

Opening for Borden will be Shok Paris, whose current album Steel and Starlight blends melodic hooks with go-for-the-gut hard rock. Also on the line-up will be local favorites Deadly Blessing.

Tickets are available by calling the Pulsations box office at (215) 459-4140.
