

WONDERWORLD

In March 2013 Ken Hensley & Live Fire recorded an album in Alicante, Spain. The norwegians Ken Ingwersen (guitar) and Tom Fossheim (drums) had been playing with Hensley for 6-8 years at that point, but this was the first time they met Roberto Tiranti (vocals and bass).

Within a few hours, the guys hit it off musically and personally on a high level. The power of the band felt huge and the process was very easy and fun. Already the first day, Ken suggested to Tom and Rob that they also should form a trio.

And so they did. Within a year, they had recorded their first album, simply called "Wonderworld", released October 2014. The follow-up album "II" was released in 2016 and their 3rd album "III" came out in 2018.

On November the 4th, 2020 Ken Hensley & Live Fire lost their bandmate, friend and mentor, Ken Hensley.

There would not have been a Wonderworld without Hensley.

He brought the band together.

So when they were hit with the sad news of his death, they decided to make an album to honour him.

Wonderworld recorded some of the songs they used to play live with Ken throughout the years.

The release date is December the 15th 2021.

This one is for you, Ken! ❤️

Contact: wonderworldtheband@gmail.com